

Library Events for October

All HPL branches are closed on Sunday October 9 and Monday October 10 for Thanksgiving Day.

Sunday Service Hours resumed at Central Library: 12pm-5pm, Dundas, Terryberry and Valley Park: 1-5pm. HPL Staff can assist by telephone (905-546-3200), email (askhpl@hpl.ca) or chat at hpl.ca between 1pm-5pm. www.hpl.ca/hours

School's in at HPL!

Students, educators and caregivers can help themselves to a collection of activities, book lists, tutoring help, online courses and more. Visit <http://www.hpl.ca/learning-at-hpl>

October Events

Day & Time	Description	Location
Sat. 15 2:00 - 4:00	Hamilton Votes: A Panel Discussion Join CBC Hamilton and a team of guest election columnists as they share unique perspectives on the city, discuss their vision for the future and look at the candidates hoping to lead over the next four years. Guest panelists <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Mohamad Bsar - Lawyer, runner, abolitionist. · Shayyan Husein - Grade 12 student at Orchard Park in Stoney Creek, first-time voter, volunteer with Elections Ontario. · Rain Hye - Former HWDSB student trustee, researcher on the experiences of BIPOC political candidates. · Sonia Hill - Director of the Indigenous Sustenance Reclamation Network. · Gavin Stephens - Comedian and co-host of the podcast, Uncolonized. October 24 is election day. Have your say. 	In-person at Central Library
Sat 8 & 15 10AM- 4PM	Shop for one-of-a-kind items made by talented local Indigenous artists and makers at Central Library. Markets feature an array of items from jewelry to ceramics to leatherwork and literature.	In-person at Central Library https://hpl.ca/indigenous-market
Oct. 2022	Hamilton Reads Online Finale Norma Dunning is a writer, scholar, researcher, professor and grandmother. Her previous short story collection, Annie Muktuk and Other Stories (University of Alberta Press, 2017) received the Danuta Gleed Literary Award, the Howard O'Hagan Award for short stories and the Bronze Foreword INDIES award for short stories. She lives in Edmonton, AB. Meet the author at the Hamilton Reads Online Finale in Fall. Details to come soon.	www.hpl.ca/Hamilton-Reads

To find more programmes visit HPL.ca/guide.